Maple Ridge Council Code of Conduct Amending Bylaw No. 8009-2024

BACKGROUND:

On February 27, 2024, Council adopted a new Code of Conduct Bylaw prompted by new legislation under the Community Charter. Since that time, Council, in accordance with the bylaw, has engaged the services of an Integrity Commissioner to carry out investigations under the bylaw.

ANALYSIS:

Discussion:

As part of the responsibilities of the Integrity Commissioner, they are responsible for procedures, policies and protocols, as necessary, to aid in the resolution of complaints under the bylaw. In drafting said documents, it was noted that several of the references within the document were misaligned. The remainder of the bylaw has been reviewed and the attached proposed amendment will rectify the referenced sections.

Strategic Alignment:

Governance & Corporate Excellence
